Grandma s Letters

By Bob Burrows

AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2006. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Ethel Baddeley a lively feisty young girl was born in Oldham in 1915 in poor but happy circumstances. Grandma s Letters tells the story of her growing up during the First World War and of her struggle as a young mum in the Second World War when her husband of just a few months left to fight the Japanese in Burma and India. Unbeknown to them at the time of his departure she was pregnant and it would be four long years before Ken would see his daughter. The last chapter tells of Ken s War derived mainly from a diary which he kept of the long journey to reach Northern India and his stories of fighting a vicious enemy. However the major part of the book consists of Grandma Howard s letters all written when she was over eighty to her children and her six grandchildren. They say that letter writing is a dying art and that it is a great joy to read other s letters. Her letters are a joy. Repeated exactly as they were written, spelling mistakes, grammatical errors and as...
