Ane Books Pvt. Ltd, 2009. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. 5th or later edition. Our established text International Trade Finance has been extensively revised for this new edition. As ever, it is an excellent guide for all students and practitioners who seek to acquire a sound understanding of international trade finance including the foreign exchange and support services provided for exporters, importers and merchants. The book is in five parts: the first sets out the rationale for the development and growth of international trade. Part two analyses the practical applications of hedging techniques and also foreign exchange and settlement procedures. The third assesses the role of documents used in international trade and analyses the way that documents are linked inexorably and logically with shipping and payment terms. Part four examines the implications of the various financial and non-financial services from the point of view of exporters. The final part analyses documentary credits from the applicant's point of view, and then evaluates the benefits and drawbacks of various specialist forms of documentary credit. An essential reading material for those studying for the International Trade Finance paper of the MBA programme in major Indian Universities and is also beneficial for Financial Analysts. Contents :- PART ONE : 1. International trade: introductory overview; PART TWO : 2. The foreign exchange market 3. Spot rates and forward rates 4. Close-outs and extensions of forward contracts 5. Foreign currency options/pure options 6. Alternative hedging strategies for exporters 7. Overview of management of foreign currency exposure 8. Foreign currency translation exposure and foreign currency economic exposure 9. Methods of international settlement through banks; PART THREE : 10. Transport documents used in international trade 11.
