Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.About the Author I didn't learn to write poetry in a creative writing class, or a systemized series of English courses. I began writing essays in an English 1 class. And in that class I was told of my creative ability. I continued to write at home for my own entertainment and that led me to writing poetry. I began writing poetry in the mid 1980s. And I taught myself to write rhyming verse poetry. I wasn't even aware of free style poetry; the kind of poetry that doesn't rhyme. I have been to such readings and listened to poets reading in vague obscurity. And they always left me disappointed. We read and hear poetry that leaves us looking through a haze wondering what the hell does that mean, like looking at a painting without scenery. My rhyming verse poetry paints scenes that are easy for the reader to see. My poems will take the reader on a crystal clear carpet ride. My poetry will make a hardened heart seek love again. My poetry can make a monk throw abstinence to the wind and go on a lustful binge. My poetry is as easy to perceive as watching an evil person smile a wicked grin, watching the sun set beyond the horizon, or a hurricane looming on the eve of destruction. My book (For all Occasions) is a must have for poetry readers. For it will charm, incite, soothe and stir your emotions like a potion. Abdul al Matin Sharrieff.
