Reviews

This pdf is indeed gripping and interesting. It is definitely simplistic but shocks within the 50 percent of your book. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

We have never lost sight of this day; we have looked forward to it from out the smoke of college pipes; we have seen its sights in the embers of the college fires; we have wondered how we should feel; we have poetized about it; we have talked about it; and now it is here. We are now to know feeling instead of sentiment, and find out whether four years rubbing of the branches and wedding of the bark, makes the sap of one tree run in the veins and arteries of its neighbor, and whether there will be no scar when they are taken up, each with his clod of earth, and transplanted to other groves than those of old Harvard. Why is it that memory stands sideways, half covered with flowers? Would the ladies tell us that it is because she thinks her profile more beautiful than her full face? I think not. The pleasures of hope and the pleasures of memory ought to have been written by the same person. To the child, Hope is all in all; she is not half, but wholly covered with flowers, and she looks with full expectant face toward the future....
