Hodder & Stoughton General Division. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, The Sum of You: The Six Secret Forces That Make You Who You are, Alan Graham, Are you an explorer, an artist, a gambler, a scientist, an environmentalist, or a philosopher? In this groundbreaking book, Dr Alan Graham argues that in fact these six different personality traits are present in all of us, to a greater or lesser degree. He provides a number of practical questionnaires and exercises which will help us to understand ourselves. Although we don't realise it, these six different personality styles are underpinned by our approach to and understanding mathematics. Some of this knowledge is innate in all of us, some of it is learnt in school, and some of it you may not learn until you read this remarkable book.
