That such a deliberate and dispassionate exercise of the discipline was intended to form an essential part of the constitution of the Society, will clearly appear from the following declaration in the Summary of the history, doctrine, u and discipline of Friends. In the practice of discipline, we think it Indispensable, that the order, recommended by Christ himself, be Invariably observed. Moreover, if thy brother shall trespass -against thee, go tell him his fault between thee M and him alone: if he shall hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother. But if he will not hear thee, then take with thee one or two more, that in the mouth of two or three wit nesses, every word may be established. And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it to the church. Matthew, chap. xviii. v. 15 to 17. And in the case of gross errors, false doc trines, or mistakes, being held by any professing truth, the directions of the yearly meeting are, that such persons ought to be diligently instructed and admonished by faithful friends, and not to be exposed by any to public re proach; M proach; and where the error proceeds from ignorance and darkness of their understanding, they ought the more meekly and gently to be informed. Let us now inquire whether these admitted rules of conduct have been complied with in the case before us. You appointed a committee to peruse my publication, and to report their judgment thereon to you. The committee proceeded...
