It was during his term as Provincial Grand Master that Franklin published his Proposals relating to the Education of Youth in Pennsylvania, which led to the later development of the University of Pennsylvania. The following year, William Allen, Recorder of the City of Philadelphia, and, later, Chief Justice of the Province, was commissioned as Provincial Grand Master by the Grand Master of England. Franklin became Deputy Grand Master, and continued in this office for several years. In 1754, Franklin presented, at a Conference on Indian Affairs, in Albany, a widely discussed plan for the union of all colonies under one government. This plan was in substance a development of the remarkable propositions outlined by Daniel Coxe, the first Provincial Grand Master appointed for New...

Reviews

Basically no terms to clarify. It is actually written in basic terms rather than confusing. I found out this ebook from my dad and I suggested this book to find out.
