Lit Fest Press / Festival of Language, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 254 x 203 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Paul Tristram is a modern day social commentator who can weave tales about life, love and the joy of intoxication into a variety of formats that use a combination of anarchic words and working class observations to create pieces of fiction that are both unique and thoroughly unforgettable. Although Punk may have had its day, through this writer, I can see that its spirit is far from dead. -Lisa Knight, Imaginalis (London) Paul Tristram mesmerizes with humor and stark reality, causing the reader to ponder and see the world and its characters in a different light of awareness. - Stephen Jarrell Williams, Dead Snakes (USA) Paul Tristram s writing is as hard-hitting as it is gritty. There s a wealth of experience in the viscera of each piece he heaves to the table, butchered and ready for the eyes to feast upon. -E.S. Wynn, Leaves of Ink (USA) Scribblings Of A Mad Man is an exercise in creativity, combining short stories with letter writing and journal keeping with an unhealthy dose of alcohol, drugs and craziness thrown into the bong mix. Although sectioned off (like mental patients) into separate parts, there is a strange cord of common sense running through the centre of the book when viewed as a whole. It s a strange journey into the unknown at times but at the same time quite comforting in its strange familiarity. It is both hilarious and a tapestry of the absurd and always worth another gander. There is no red or blue pill here but both pills together under a keg of beer. You will never be the same after reading this, and...
