In Vancouver, Maria as a private detective finds both love, and a tumultuous life full of luxury, excitement, fury, treachery, and deadly intrigue which embroils her with unscrupulous people involved with drugs and murder. When Marias friend Val dies from the effects of illegal drugs and with the untimely death of her mother, Maria along with her father become determined and courageously involved in a crusade to end the life of corruption and death, which through deceit and conniving, they have been trapped.
