Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Lincoln s Masterpiece: A Review of the Gettysburg Address, New in Treatment and Matter By the battle of July 3, 1863, Gettysburg was made famous to all civilization. For this result were required the operations of 170,000 men and the cost of 7,000 lives. Its elevation as a spot of doubly historic interest was accomplished in the brief space of about two minutes by the voice of Abraham Lincoln. The occasion was the dedication of the Soldiers National Cemetery on November 19th, following the battle. It was then and there that the President, in the midst of 3,500 new-made graves, delivered the address which shall not perish from the earth. It was said by Charles Sumner, in a conversation with Joshua F. Speed shortly after the death of President Lincoln, that Lincoln s Gettysburg address would live when the memory of the battle was lost, or that the battle would be remembered only because of the address. In this observation of the Massachusetts statesman to the distinguished citizen of Kentucky we find a keener appreciation of what Lincoln said on that occasion than anything recorded in the mass of extant literature on the subject. Now that we are about to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of the delivery of this remarkable composition and note its ever growing popularity, we may well contemplate the possible realization of Sumner s prophecy, while recalling the modest words of Lincoln on that November day in 1863 - The world will little note nor long remember what we say here.
