Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Boston-area firefighter Peter Connor had it all: a beautiful wife; a loving son; a job that he loved. To those around him, he was a hero and a leader. Until the one night in which he lost everything. A horrible accident robbed him of those closest to him and left him struggling to find a reason to keep going. Can he find his way back? Single mother Amy Harper lost the love of her life when his convoy ran over an IED in Afghanistan. Left to raise their young daughter alone, she finds her own life threatened from the inside out. Beloved and respected radiologist, Dr. Grace Warner, spent her entire life saving others when her own life is turned upside down. Diagnosed with Leukemia, Dr. Warner must find the power inside herself to survive against insurmountable odds or come to terms with her own mortality. Far away, watching all of these events unfold, a group of souls observe and offer guidance. Will it be enough? Are our lives the outcome of a series of coincidences or are our fates pre-ordained? Is love predestined? This story, while a work of fiction, was my coping mechanism after watching my mother, a well-respected Boston area radiologist, suffer from and then succumb to the horrible disease of Leukemia. Her persona is very much alive in the character of Dr. Grace Warner, as her loving husband is portrayed by Dr. Warners fictional husband, Dr. Hayden Warner. Everyone grieves in their own way. This story was my method of grieving. It is part love story and part memorial, yet at the same time it is a beautiful story of hope....
